

This house has sat boarded-up for at least a year. I cannot find any record that there was ever any kind of fire damage at this house. Also notice the trash bags on the porch.

This house has sat boarded-up for well over two years. The bushes are also very overgrown. I don't even want to know what the inside is like.

I admit that this is a bad picture. However, notice the boarded-up second-story window on the left. This house has sat vacant like this for at least a year.

The window above this establishment has remained boarded-up for over a year.

Obviously, this house has had problems for a long time. However, why were the violations allowed to become this big. Another historic house will probably have to be torn down, leaving a vacant lot.

Who knows how long the rear door to Maria's has been boarded-up?

A Waste Management trash bag out on the tree lawn. Per city ordinance, I think these are supposed to be stored out of sight from the street, and not on the tree lawn.

Miscellaneous garbage out on the tree lawn almost a week early.

This sofa sat out for almost a week.

This was put out on a Thursday and sat out until Monday.

Ripped-up furniture out on a lawn for almost a week.

Sofas and TV's out for almost a week.