

THOU
SHALT NOT STEAL ART

COSE Arts Network Forum:

Intellectual Property and the Arts

Featuring special guest presenter:

Mark Hosler, Negativland

The Higbee Building
100 Public Square, Suite 210
Cleveland, Ohio 44113

{ COSE Arts Network Forum: Intellectual Property and the Arts }

The COSE Arts Network and the Center for Law, Technology and the Arts at Case School of Law present a one-of-a-kind event featuring independent musician, arts activist and “citizen lobbyist,” Mark Hosler of the band Negativland. Mark will discuss his experiences fighting legal battles over copyright, intellectual property and fair use in art and music. Local attorney, Sharon Toerek, and legal professor, Peter Friedman, will then present their legal points-of-view on many of the same issues surrounding intellectual property and the arts. Don't miss this unique forum—reserve your seat today!

DATE: Wednesday, September 2 TIME: 6–9 p.m.

LOCATION: Aitken Auditorium at the Cleveland Institute of Art,
11141 East Boulevard, Cleveland, Ohio 44106

COST: $5 COSE members, $15 nonmembers (admission fee administered by COSE)
Students, staff and faculty of Case Western Reserve University and CIA—complimentary admission

1.5 Free hours of CLE credit available to lawyers who attend, courtesy of Case School of Law
Free parking in the CIA/Cinematheque parking lot (entrance on East Blvd. or Bellflower)

To register, visit cosearts.org or call 216.592.2203.